FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Molly Maid Launches Father's Day We Love Dads Contest

Molly Maid Partners with Grand Traverse Pie Company to Offer a Chance to Win a House Cleaning & Chocolate Stout Pie

ANN ARBOR, Mich. – May 28, 2015 – The national residential cleaning franchise celebrating more than 30 years of cleaning America's homes, Molly Maid wants to recognize the important men in our lives and give them a break from house cleaning for Father's Day. To do something special for all the hard-working dads, Molly Maid partnered with Grand Traverse Pie Company to create the We Love Dads contest.

A one-word contest entry will reward winners with Molly Maid house cleaning gift certificates and a special man-inspired Chocolate Stout Pie. To participate, simply "Like" Molly Maid on Facebook and use one word to describe what you would rather do than clean the house at: https://www.facebook.com/MollyMaid?sk=app_181518015386164. Entries will be accepted until June 18, 2015.

The grand prize winner will receive $150 toward a Molly Maid house cleaning and a Father's Day Chocolate Stout Grand Traverse Pie Company pie. Fifteen second-place winners will receive $100 worth of Molly Maid gift certificates and one free pie.

In addition, $5 of every Molly Maid gift certificate purchased, will be donated to the Ms. Molly Foundation to support victims of domestic violence from now through June 18.

"There are so many important men in our lives. This contest is our way of helping let special fathers, grandfathers, uncles, brothers and sons know how much they are appreciated," said Molly Maid President Meg Roberts. "We're excited to partner with the Grand Traverse City Pie Company to reward some of these men with prizes we know they'll enjoy and also share the donations from gift certificates purchased to help women seeking safety in shelters around the country.”
